

HOW TO BUILD AN ART COLLECTION:

Investing a certain amount each month rather than putting it into savings may be an alternative approach to growing a financial nest egg for the future. The art market can be volatile, but with a pragmatic and reasoned approach, this could be a way of outstripping the current interest rates.

WHY USE IAYSHA ART CONSULTANCY?

There is a vast array of works available on the market to suit all tastes and budgets; laysha Art Consultancy helps source the works that are most suitable for you. We aim to assist you to adorn your walls with beauty that inspires you. Past clients include The Spa Hotel, Barclays Bank, Thackeray's restaurant in Tunbridge Wells, Scott Lloyd leisure centres and, most recently, consulting on the Gherkin gallery.

THE ART OF COLLECTING

Thinking about starting your own art collection? Then laysha Art Consultancy can help. To guide you through the popular pastime and assist with making the most of those investment prospects, curator laysha Salih offers her top tips on what to look for and how to find the perfect pieces for you

Not just for the rich and famous, art collecting is about good taste, great fun and for any budget. Don't think you will need thousands of pounds to start your collection – good art can start from a few hundred.

THE ART OF COLLECTING:

- Choose something you love
 - Keep within your budget
 - Buy what makes your heart sing...it will stand the test of time
 - Don't buy to match the decor of a room
 - Work with a consultant you can trust
- Buying for investment is completely different and can be fun as well as profitable – you don't have to start at the high end of the market. When Bambi first came on the market, she was unheard of and for those who invested in her potential, the rewards are now becoming evident; being sold exclusively from selected dealers, her canvases are sought after by a celebrity market including Boris Johnson, Rhianna, Brad Pitt and Harry Stiles.
